

About Cliveden:

Shaded by the mature oaks on Greene Street in Philadelphia, within walking distance of Germantown, Cliveden reimagines what a subacute care facility should be.

Providing short-term post-acute rehabilitation as well as long-term skilled nursing care, Cliveden is a comprehensive care center that provides a personal touch to your experience.

Patients come to us from several area hospitals, including Temple Hospital, Roxborough Hospital, Albert Einstein Medical, Chestnut Hill Hospital, and others.

The outcome of our patients is our number one priority. Cliveden brings a fresh and innovative interpretation to care.
